THAT LITTLE OLD LIE.

"Oh, what a tangled web we weave When first we practise to deceive!" He told his wife a lie, one day— A little lie—about the way In which he'd carried out while she Was not along to hear and see.

The lie was white and very small— It need not have been told at all— Yet he is forced to lie his day And while the evenings wear away For every word he utters now Brings up that little lie, somehow!

THE BEST PROMOTER.

The carefully prepared and well-distributed advertisement is the most successful "promoter." It "sells" more people in one day than the average human promoter can achieve in the whole of his professional career. It appeals to the reader directly and continually, and reaches trade that could not be influenced by the most eloquent salesmen. The wise business man employs the most potent agent for strength and interest his business.

Special Request.

Our unassuming advertisements appearing in the columns of this paper, or when buying goods from a merchant whose advertisement appears in this paper, our readers are especially requested to state that they use the advertisement in this paper.

This will cost you nothing, and it will be greatly appreciated by both the advertiser and the Editor.

FATALY INJURED.

Accidental Discharge of a Gun Wounds Lewis County Man.

Jesse Woods of Quincy, Lewis county, was so badly injured a few days since by the accidental discharge of a shotgun that he will die.

Woods and several companions were drifting in the Ohio river.

Leaning against a log on the bank was an old shotgun, the muzzle pointing directly at Woods.

Suddenly the weapon was discharged and he received the contents in the abdominal cavity, causing a frightful wound.

The discharge of the gun was caused by it slipping, the butt striking a rock.

THE LEADER is for the home merchant and "forerunner" the itinerant peddler every day in the year; but some of the home merchants are foolishly waiting in appreciation.

False Economy.

Ask the Merchant who does not use the columns of "THE LEADER" why he does not advertise, and nine times out of ten he will tell you that he can't afford it. Foolish man! Let him try the experiment, and unless all experience tell he will get his money back fourfold. Suppose you try it!

NOVEL SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

Man Thrown From Mule—Sues Railroad For $10,000 Only.

Dr. T. Mulleghan of Ceredo, well known here, has entered suit against the N. and W. Railway for $10,000.

His claim for damages is a novel one. He states that he was on a mule and was on the South side of the N. and W. Railway Yards, on what is known as the Broad Hollow road, near Ceredo; and, on account of a train lying on the track over the crossing, was compelled to wait a long time before he could cross. While waiting, his mule became frightened at the train and threw him across the horn of his saddle, injuring him severely, the sciatic nerve of his left leg being injured to such an extent that he often falls to the ground while walking.

(Of course, the Jury will decide that the Railway Company is to blame. It would be just the same if the Doctor had fallen out of a mule high and killed himself by striking his head on one of the counties through which the road passes.—Ed. LEADER.)

MUST LOSE THEIR JOBS.

Reduction of Internal Revenue Employs the First of April.

The reduction by Congress of the stamp taxes imposed on the revenue purpases has been understood to carry with it a very considerable decrease in the forces of the Collectors of Internal Revenue throughout the country, but it was not believed that the changes would go into effect until July 1 next, at the beginning of the new fiscal year.

Commissioner Yerkes has, however, ordered a sweeping reduction to take effect on the 1st of April and Collectors have been notified of the number of men they must release at the close of the present week.

Collector Roberts has been ordered to reduce his office force to the extent of one $1,200 Deputy and his field force one $1,200 General Deputy, a cutting off of $2,400 in salaries and $400 in traveling expenses.

The reduction in general or traveling Deputies affects either George W. Casle of Carter county, or Laban T. McClure of Lawrence county, one of whom must be dropped.

The reduction in the Collector's office at Lexington will be made by the transfer of J. N. Shawhan to the office of the Commissioner of the Internal Revenue at Washington.

By no means the crowd that the show deserved was at the Opera-house last evening to see Charles R. Hanford in "Private John Allen," but what was lacking in number was made up in enthusiasm. The company was a very fine one, Mr. Hanford being an actor of exceptional ability. The show was among the best seen here this season.

BALLENGER, JEWELER AND OPTICIAN.

THE WHITE COLLAR LINE has experienced much difficulty in handling freight at Ironton, and to obviate this difficulty in the future, has decided to place a wharftoat there. It will be 175 feet long and 40 feet wide, and for the exclusive use of the White Collar Line and the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati Packet Company's boats. This is the first time a wharftoat has ever been placed at Ironton by the White Collar Line, and the improvement was necessitated by increased volume of river shipping business. The steamer Indiana, which extends her trade to Ironton, beginning last Sunday, will use the new wharf, and there will be a boat out of Cincinnati every day for Ironton next week and thereafter.

IF you have an item of news, please send it to The Leader, Telephone 33.

It is our duty to publish it.

Our distinguished young printer, the Honorable JAMES N. K. K. K., M. C., will only send you some garden seed we will be good for the next two years—that is, in my own words, without too much agricultural—Grayson Tribune.

THE LEADER understands that it has already spoken for a large quantity of the famous "vicia villosa," warranted to grow on a printing office towel, which will be sent only to Editors.

The Louisville Home Telephone Company has been incorporated under the laws of Delaware, with a capital of $1,000,000. The fee to be paid to the state of Delaware will amount to several thousand dollars; and the reason that Kentucky doesn't get it is on account of her obnoxious and unjust legislation against capital. The incorporation laws of Delaware are the most liberal of any state in the Union, and, as in New Jersey, the fees obtained for charters form one of the principal sources of the revenue of the state.

THE worm is about to turn. Recently the State Board of Valuation and Assessment, composed of three Democratic state officers at Frankfort, decided that, in addition to the franchise tax levied against railroads for the state, the various counties through which the roads pass were also entitled to collect "franchise" tax. Such action was never taken by any previous Board, and former ones had been composed of much older lawyers and statesmen than constitute the present Board.

The amount involved is approximately $600,000.

And now come the Chesapeake and Ohio, the Louisville and Nashville, the Illinois Central and the Cincinnati Southern—all interstate railroads—and file in the State Fiscal Court at Frankfort a suit to prevent the collection of this new tax.

Heretofore these railroads have paid into the State Treasury "franchise" taxes to the amount of $400,000; and the present action is not only to prevent the collection of the proposed $600,000, but it is also for the recovery of the $400,000 already paid, the Attorneys for the roads claiming that the State Board has no right to assess the franchise at all.

The case will be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States if necessary; and it's a safe bet that the over-zeal of the present "Tax Inquisitors" of Kentucky will get a wholesome set-back, at an additional cost of thousands of dollars to the taxpayers for lawyer's fees.

Just wait and see; and in the meanwhile paste this in your hat and read it every night after you say your prayers.

CURED BY PRAYER.

Wife of Mt. Olivet Minister Says She Has Been Divinely Healed.

Mrs. Pollitt, wife of the Rev. H. H. Pollitt, Pastor of the Methodist Church, South, at Mt. Olivet, claims to have been divinely healed.

She had been sick for some time and her disease baffled the skill of her physicians. One of them decided she had a tumor, and the only hope was an operation.

The Rev. Pollitt, believing that nothing is impossible with God, and his wife being of like faith, that whatever she ask in His name, believing that she shall receive, decided to pray for her recovery.

He wrote to so some of the most consecrated members of the Church he serves at Piqua and Mt. Tabor, for them to join him and his wife in prayer at certain hours for her recovery.

From that same hour she began to improve, and in a few days she was completely restored to health, and she attributes her recovery as an answer to prayer.

HE WAS MUCHLY MARRIED

Two Wives Want Estate of Bourbon County Hubby.

SOME KNOTTY PROBLEMS FOR COURT.

The present term of Bourbon Circuit Court, now in session, has a case of more than ordinary interest.

On the 4th day of April, 1898, Oscar H. Lawless and Mamie C. Tane were married at Carlisle, Nicholas county. They lived together some time and then, and a child was born to them which is now ten years of age.

About five years ago Lawless and his wife had a misunderstanding of some kind, and in a few days she was divorced. After residing in the county a few years, he was married on January 20th, 1900, to Miss Lulu Hipschire, daughter of Lee Hipschire, living just over the Fayette county line, near Lorraine. Wife No. 1, who is still residing in Nicholas county, through her attorney, Colonel Thomas Owens of Carlisle, filed a suit for divorce in the Honorable Circuit Court, but LAWLESS DIED a day or two before the Sheriff called at his home to serve the summons.

Of course that put a stop to the divorce proceedings, and Mrs. Lawless No. 1 came in and wanted to qualify as Administratrix of her deceased husband's estate. After some delay Mrs. Lawless No. 1 had the Bourbon County Court to appoint Harrison Suggs, an administrator of the Lawless estate. Mr. Hill was unable to determine which was the legal wife. He therefore filed a petition in the Circuit Court stating that Lawless was married to Miss Tane in 1889 and to Miss Hipschire in 1900, but that he hadn't knowledge or information sufficient enough to state whether or not Lawless had been divorced from wife No. 1, and he made both the wives parties-defendants to the action.

Wife No. 1 came forward and set up a claim for herself and daughter to all of the property left by her husband, and Mrs. Lawless No. 2 filed an answer, stating that she and Lawless were married in Covington, and that she did not know that he had ever been married, and asked the Court to require wife No. 1 to say whether or not a divorce had been granted or if she had ever been served with a summons, citing her to answer to a divorce proceeding.

QUESTION OF A NAME.

In the certificate filed by wife No. 1, the name of the deceased was given as "Lawless," while in the certificate filed by wife No. 2, the name appears "Lolla." Wife No. 1 follows the name as written in her certificate, while wife No. 2 follows the name as written in her certificate, except that she spells it "Lolla." That both women had the same husband there is no doubt.

Believes wife No. 1 from Nicholas county were with Lawless during his last illness, had known him all his life, and they testify that there is no mistake about it. Wife No. 2 admits that Lolla, Lolla and Lawless are all one and the same person, but she simply wants wife No. 1 to say whether or not Lawless had obtained a divorce. She seems confident that her husband was a divorced man, but is unable to find any record of the proceedings either in the Bourbon or Nicholas County.

A singular feature of the case is that a man could come from an adjoining county and live within sixteen miles of the people among whom he was born, and reared, marry again, and neither wife ever hear of the other.

Relatives of wife No. 1, residing in the vicinity of Louisville, Kentucky, Lawless was married, and, although they visited the old neighborhood frequently and had friends from home in the vicinity, it seems that no word was ever carried from one wife to the other. Both wife No. 1 and wife No. 2 are members of good families and are themselves above reproach.
